PBP SYMPOSIUM-TEAM

Simon Höfele is the winner of the OPUS KLASSIK 2020 and within a short space of time has established himself internationally as one of the most successful trumpet players of the young generation.

Matthias Kowalczyk became 2010, at the age of 22, solo trumpet player in the „Frankfurt Opera and Museum Orchestra“. From October 2023, the new Trumpet Professor in Trossingen.

Marc Gruber has been a solo horn player in the hr Radio Symphony Orchestra since 2016. In the same year he won the second prize (without awarding a first prize) as well as a Special Prize and the Audience Prize at the ARD music competition in Munich.

Saar Berger has been a member of the international soloist „Ensemble Modern“ since 2007. He works with many young generation composers worldwide. Since 2019, Professor for Horn at HfM Trossingen.

Frank Szathmary-Filipitsch has been Sub.solo trombonist in the SWR Symphonieorchester Stuttgart since 2004 and has worked for many years at the music academies in Mannheim, Stuttgart, Karlsruhe, Düsseldorf and Saarbrücken.

Mark Hampton is a member of the orchestra in Gran Canaria and the Mahler Chamber Orchestra. He has collaborated with many renowned international orchestras, in addition to his solo performances & teaching activities.

Christoph Wiedmann has been deputy. Solo paucker and drummer engaged in the Stuttgart State Orchestra. He is teaching timpani and orchestra studies drums at the Staatliche Hochschule für Musik in Stuttgart.

Jochen Schorer has combined the stylistic diversity of new music, classical music and jazz. Since 1999 first percussionist with the SWR Symphony Orchestra. From October 2023, the new Percussion professor in Trossingen.

Katrin Dieckelt, a choir singer to the Frankfurt Opera, deepened her yoga skills and completed a yoga teacher training in 2014. Valuable impulses to a natural, free breath complete and support yoga practice and build a helpful bridge to holistic work, especially with musicians.

Ben Schütz is a musician, festival producer and educator. As a lecturer for body percussion, Ben works for renowned institutions. In 2015, he founded the Body Rhythm Festival in Hamburg

Sophie Stahl, professional oboe player and a musician's physiotherapist, has been giving workshops and lectures on a regular basis for musicians.

POSITIVELY BRASS & PERCUSSION

From Sep. 30 to Oct. 03, 2023, the international Positively Brass & Percussion Symposium will take place for the 8th time at the University of Music Trossingen. The PBP Symposium offers advanced students and young musicians the opportunity to further develop their skills in instrumental master classes and different workshops. HfM Trossingen as a meeting point to collect inspiration, motivation, musical and instrumental guidance, performance practice in solo literature, orchestra training. An Open Musical and Sound exchange is the Positively Brass & Percussion Symposium main goal.

We look forward to welcoming world-renowned icons of the brass world to Trossingen for the 8th Positively Brass & Percussion Symposium. An overview of all teachers can be found on our flyer and on the website: www.positivelybrass.com
